

Innovation in Branch Design and Services...

Tucker, GA - Go Energy Financial Credit Union has just opened a new branch with an innovative, open-concept design built for modern conveniences and community involvement. Included in the planning and design are advanced interactive teller equipment and digital services provided with the support of CashTrans, a leader in advanced banking equipment and services.

“With the tremendous growth of our service industry and our credit union coupled with the digital and video advances in our industry, we feel confident in delivering the most flexible and customer centric services to our members,” explained Becky Hulett, Chief Financial Officer at Go Energy. “It was an amazing project and our vision has been achieved with the tireless help and support from CashTrans our preferred equipment vendor.”
