CashTrans and Wincor-Nixdorf Announce a Strategic Partnership!

Atlanta, GA – CashTrans has been selected by Wincor-Nixdorf to provide the full array of Wincor-Nixdorf advanced ATM equipment and Automated Teller Station (ATS) hardware. Wincor-Nixdorf is the second largest ATM manufacturer in the world with 18 of the top 25 financial institutions and 17 of the top 25 retailers in the world as customer.

“We are very pleased to offer one of the most advanced and reliable ATM and ATS portfolios in the world -- Wincor-Nixdorf. We are impressed with their rapid growth in the U.S. with many major new clients. Also they are an outstanding company with world class service and a product line offering unique design features and functionality,” states Fred Ethridge, President, CashTrans.

Along with ATM Cash Dispensers, the ATM product line includes the Full Function ProCash series walk-up and drive-up ATMs that offer the patented “Check and Cash Deposit Module (CCDM)” which is the most advanced Deposit Automation in the world with a single throat depository that accepts bulk cash and checks. A number of major and regional banks across the country and in the south have deployed this highly dependable and multi-functional unit.

“The Wincor-Nixdorf product line offers a wide variety of ATM and Automated Teller Solutions which are perfect even for small and mid-sized banks and credit unions,” continues Mr. Ethridge. “We believe we have a great range of solutions that a bank or credit union of any size could offer at competitive prices, supported by outstanding service,” continues Ethridge.

Wincor-Nixdorf is committed to the U.S. with its U.S. headquarter located in Austin, Texas, which is the location of their U.S. logistics facility, call center, service organization, repair center, integration center and professional services department.
