Andrew Hamilton joins CashTrans as Relationship Manager for South Georgia and Florida Markets

Atlanta, GA - CashTrans is pleased to announce that Andrew Hamilton has joined the company as a Relationship Manager based in metropolitan Orlando! Andrew is a 25 year industry veteran serving the needs of the community financial institutions in the southeast. He comes to CashTrans with an exceptional professional reputation, industry knowledge and understands the needs and requirements of community financial institutions.

“We are very pleased to have Andrew join our sales and account management team. We are also confident his contributions will be significant in the months and years ahead, based on his reputation, experience and dedication to helping clients succeed,” stated Fred Ethridge, President of CashTrans. “Andrew’s relationship with community financial institutions throughout the region is most valuable, particularly as CashTrans grows its client base as part of the Diebold Certified Dealer program, in the southeastern United States,” continues Mr. Ethridge.

“I am truly honored to join the CashTrans team and also honored to continue to serve many of the clients that I have served faithfully over the past several years,” states Andrew Hamilton. “We can make a difference for our clients and provide the expertise to assist the community financial institutions with the products and service they need to compete in their unique markets,” continued Mr. Hamilton.

Andrew is a veteran of the United States Army. He has worked for several financial industry core vendors, one of the largest managed security providers to the financial industry and also a small network integrator. His career has provided Andrew the wonderful opportunity to work with many senior banking executives over the past 25 years. Andrew currently resides in Longwood, Florida with his wife, Gayle.
